

Wow Launch!

What is under our feet?

Outcome/masterpiece

STEM Essential Knowledge

Maths

- Tell time to the nearest minute.
- Add and subtract fractions with the same denominator.

Science

- Rocks are solid and made from different combinations of minerals.
- Fossils are preserved remains of organisms or imprints they have left behind.

Computing

- Chart and Graph are examples of diagrams that represent data.
- It is important to consider when inputting data into a chart or graph, which type (e.g. bar, line or pie) will be the most effective.

Starling Class Summer Term 1

Mary Anning

Language and Literacy Essential

Reading

- Read with increasing fluency and stamina.
- Comment on the way characters relate to one another.

Writing

- Write under headings and sub headings.
- Experiment with adjectives to create impact.

French

- French transport.
- There are other countries apart from France that are French speaking.

Class Text: Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl

Humanities Essential Knowledge

History

- Oral history is a method to learn about past events from the spoken stories of people who lived through them.
- Horses were used in different ways in Britain's past.
- In 1913 there were 70,000 ponies working underground in coal mines.

Significant Individual

Mary Anning

R.E.

- Know how Christian people's beliefs about God, Jesus, the world and others have impact on their lives.
- The Old Testament tells the story of a particular group of people; the children of Israel known as the children of God.

Arts Essential Knowledge

Music

- Know how to rap accurately and rhythmically with marked dynamic contrast.
- Know how to transfer rhythmic clapping patterns to tuned instruments.

Art

- Know how to build up imagery through layering shapes.
- Know that shapes have both a positive and negative element.

Wellbeing/RSE/ Forest School

PSHE

- Keeping healthy.
- #### PE
- Know how to improve throwing techniques in a range of different ways with different objects.
 - Know how to use different swimming strokes.

