

Oh Summer, your adventures and warmth;
so varied and quite bright.
Your excitement compares to great fireworks at night.

Oh Summer, your many shades and hues
do not lack in colour.
You are a kaleidoscope of visual splendour.

Oh Summer, I felt relaxed and calm
the morning that you came.
I knew then that my future days would not be the same.

Oh Summer, your hot, sunny days,
green leaves and pretty sights,
allow me to play outside and climb to daring heights.
